

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements Authors' Biographic Summaries

1. Introduction

- 1.1 AED's Role
- 1.2 Handbook Assumptions
- 1.3 Rationale for Hosting U.S. Education Abroad Students
- 1.4 Reciprocity
- 1.5 Articulating Your Goals for Collaboration
- 1.6 International Education Resources
 - Alliance for International Educational and Cultural Exchange
 - American Council on Education (ACE)
 - Association of International Education Administrators (AIEA)
 - The Forum on Education Abroad
 - NAFSA: Association of International Educators
- 1.7 Standards of Good Practice

2. Hosting U.S. Education Abroad Students

- 2.1 Trends in Education Abroad
- 2.2 Defining Education Abroad
- 2.3 Why U.S. Students Study Abroad
- 2.4 How U.S. Educational Institutions Value Education Abroad

3. Collaborative Relationships with U.S. Partners

- 3.1 Contributing to Internationalization Goals through Hosting U.S. Students
 - Student Mobility
 - Revenue
 - Faculty Mobility and Training
 - Capacity Building
 - Intrinsic Internationalization Qualities
- 3.2 Finding an Institutional Match that Suits Your Campus
 - Matching Departments/Academic Programs
 - Complementary Institutional Mission and Focus
 - Admission Criteria
 - Accreditation

- 3.3 Formulating a Partnership Agreement
 - Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs), Intent (MOI), and Other Agreements
 - Monitoring and Evaluation
- 3.4 Maintaining the Partner Relationship
 - Communication that Inspires Confidence
 - Managing Multiple Relationships with U.S. Partners
 - Contingencies
- 3.5 Hosting a Representative from Your U.S. Partner
 - Pre-Arrival of Visitor
 - Arrival and Orientation
 - Meetings
 - Business Meeting Do's and Don'ts
- 3.6 Program Coordinators
 - Important Qualities in a Resident Director
 - Issues to Consider When Choosing a Resident Director
- 3.7 Models for Visiting Student Programs
 - Direct Enrollment
 - Exchange Programs
 - Hybrid Programs
 - Standalone Programs
 - Additional Program Options
 - Other Partners or Service Providers
 - Program Duration
- 3.8 U.S. Sending Institutions
 - Institution-to-Institution Agreement
 - Consortia
 - Program Provider Model
 - Independent Students
 - Host University Study Center Model

4. Overview of U.S. Higher Education

- 4.1 Overview of the U.S. Education System
- 4.2 Overview of Higher Education in the United States
- 4.3 Types of Higher Education Institutions in the United States
- 4.4 Admissions
 - Academic Entrance Exams
- 4.5 The Academic Year
- 4.6 The Credit System
 - Major Course of Study
 - Graduation Requirements
- 4.7 Assessment

- 4.8 Academic Honesty
What Is Considered "Cheating?"
- 4.9 Characteristics of the U.S. Educational Experience
Computers and the Internet
- 4.10 Student Services
Academic Advising
- 4.11 Earning Academic Credit for Education Abroad
Working with U.S. Partners and Individual Students
Reviewing Host Institution Course Information to Determine Credit Award
Transcripts
Amount of Academic Credit Students Can Earn
Grade Transfers
Accredited Institutions
- 4.12 Parents' Role in Higher Education and Education Abroad
Communication with U.S. Parents in Preparation for Study Abroad
Communication with U.S. Parents During the Education Abroad Program

5. Orienting U.S. Students

- 5.1 Pre-departure Orientation
- 5.2 Arrival Orientation
Logistics
Cross Cultural
- 5.3 Culture Shock
- 5.4 Ongoing Orientation
- 5.5 Serving Education Abroad Students with Disabilities
- 5.6 Diversity and Group Dynamics in Education Abroad
- 5.7 Heritage Travel
- 5.8 Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender Students
Campus Programs that Address Sexual Orientation
- 5.9 Preparing U.S. Students for Re-entry
Reverse Culture Shock

6. Lodging and Food

- 6.1 Options for Student Housing
- 6.2 Host Family Experience
- 6.3 Shared Accommodations
- 6.4 Campus Housing
Managing Crisis Intervention and Emergencies in On-campus Housing
Responsibilities and Expectations for On-campus Living
- 6.5 Student Life
- 6.6 Feeding U.S. Students

7. Health, Safety, and Security Issues

- 7.1 Student Health Issues
 - Common Cold and Stomach Ailments
 - Serious Health Risks
 - Road Safety
 - Drugs and Alcohol Usage
 - Cultural Adjustment
- 7.2 Student Health Insurance
- 7.3 Student Health Assessment and Health Care Services
- 7.4 Program Rules, Student Behavior, and Disciplinary Consequences
- 7.5 Student Safety
- 7.6 U.S. Expectations for Crisis Management
- 7.7 Security Concerns

8. Legal Issues

- 8.1 Cultural Expectations of U.S. Students Regarding the Law
- 8.2 Summary of U.S. Legal Context Related to Higher Education
 - Civil Rights
 - Privacy
 - Public Disclosure
 - Financial Aid
- 8.3 National and Local Legal Requirements

9. Community Involvement

- 9.1 Community Service
- 9.2 Service Learning and Internships
- 9.3 Building Relationships with Peers
- 9.4 Field Trips

10. Marketing Your Institution

- 10.1 First Steps
 - Decide What You Can and Cannot Offer
 - Survey Existing Programs in Your Geographic Region
 - Decide on a Program Especially Created for U.S. Students, Integrating U.S. Students into Existing Courses and Programs, or Perhaps a Combination of the Two
 - Decide to Aim Marketing Effort at the Education Abroad Offices of U.S. Colleges and Universities or Individual Students or Both

- 10.2 Marketing to Individual Students
 - Use the Web, Other Resources, and U.S Visits
 - Respond to Queries and Questions Quickly
 - Foster Student-to-Student Contact
 - Respond to Parent Questions
 - Keep the Student's Education Abroad Office Informed
- 10.3 Marketing to U.S. Colleges and Universities
 - Offering "Familiarization Visits"
 - Respond to Inquiries in a Timely Manner
- 10.4 Marketing
 - Be Realistic
 - Be Consistent
 - Celebrate the Students and Partnerships You Have

11. Conclusion

- Rely on Your U.S. Partner for Assistance
- Communicate
- Take One Step at a Time
- Remember Your Goals
- Celebrate Your Success

AED'S Education Abroad Initiative